OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT — Memorial of Vidwan Venkatachari, Police School Inspector (on leave).

LAST REFERENCE — Letter No. 2673/208 dated 23rd November

From the Offg. Inspector General of Police.

Vidwan Venkatachar was a Head Quarter Inspector @ Rs 100 + 15. Owing to some report of mis-conduct* against him, the then Inspector General Mr Rickatts dismissed him from# service. On appeal Govt ordered his restoration to a less responsible post on the same pay; but the Inspector General recommended

e reduced to Police Head Constable on Rs 40, which the was approved. (vide letter No 557/1523 dt 13-1-91 & Govt Ro: No- C-171 dated 18th July 1891). He has been on the same pay for the last 10 years. He has now submitted a petition to the Swami praying that he may e provided with a suitable appointment in Revenue, Registration or Muzrai Departments of e State. The Offg Inspector General, hrough whom the petition has en submitted, recommends hat, as he has suffered long, what may be the merits of his case, e may be restored to his ormer appointment on a acancy occurring.

Copies obtained & sent here & put up.

A similar petition from him in 1900 was forwarded to the Inspector General of Police with the observation that the petitioner must look to his official superior for advancement. (vide Official Memorandum No. 11678 dated 5 March 1901).

[The original papers connected with the petitioner's case are not forthcoming in this office [Please see p3 (now 2nd cover) margin No 3] Hence copies of the Proceedings quoted above were obtained and put up for reference.]

I see no copy of the original order directing that the Asstt= should be given a less respon-sible post in the same way. If the original or * Copy cannot be had please put up an extract from the Progs Book.

* copy received from the Insp-Gl with his letter No. 373 dy 4/3/02 is put up. 6.3.02

If the original order of Govt= was on the Insp= Genl's recommenda-tion altered by Govt= and much severer punish-ment substituted, the case is one of Consider-able hardship. The emolument undergone hitherto (a fine of some or 8 thousand rupees at least) has been much more than Suf-ficient as observed by the I. G. for the ori-ginal misdeed. Govt= has again and again declined to reconsider the matter. But restoration in a case like this does not mean reversal of the original order.

The only question that arises is whether the petitioner can now be given promotion out of turn in his department without injustice to those who are at present placed above him. The difficulty is not however insurmountable. The Inspector General may be asked to give him the promotion he recommends as early as he can — unless indeed the Dewan should be pleased to direct that as represented by the petitioner, Some promotion may be given him in any other Dept to? I know of no such place available at present. I suggest.

FROM

B. K. Venkataradaraengar Esquire,

offg. ~~THE~~ INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE IN MYSORE.

To H. V. Vaijnindayya Esq., M.A., M.L.,

~~THE~~ SECRETARY TO THE GOVT. OF MYSORE,

GENERAL AND REVENUE DEPARTMENTS.

SIR,

I beg to submit herewith, as requested, the memorial of Police Inspector Vidvan Venkatachar. His case is this: He was a Head Quarter Inspector on Rs 100/ plus Rs 15/ horse allowance. In consequence of some report against him of adultery, &c, the then Inspector General Mr Ricketts dismissed him. On appeal the Government ordered his restoration to a less responsible post on the same pay of Rs 100/. But the Inspector General recommended that that he should be reduced to Mucoo Head Tidewaiter on R40 p. Mo the Mucoo Government directed in order No. 171 of the 18th July 1891. Thus he has been the reduced pay since 10 years. He now prays for a suitable post in the Revenue, Registration or Survey Department. Whatever may be the merits of his case, it seems that he has suffered long and the Government may, perhaps, be pleased to order his restoration to his former post on a vacancy occurring.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

[signature]

offg. Inspector General of Mucoo.

His Excellency,
The Dewan,
of Mysore

The humble Petition of Vidwan Venkataiah,
Police School Inspector
of the Bangalore District.
(now on leave)

Most humbly sheweth:

That the Petitioner was Head Quarters Inspector of the Chittledroog Dist. on Rs 100+15 till February/90, when owing to an unfounded report of an alleged misconduct he was dismissed from Service.

2. That on appeal, the Govt. was pleased to reverse the order of dismissal, & restore the Petitioner to his post, but, to his ill-luck, the Inspector General of Police who had dismissed him, was asked (Vide Chief Secretary's docket No 8050/939 dated 29th September/90) to provide the Petitioner with a less responsible post under him, on the same pay.

The Inspector General, in reply, suggested that the Petitioner should be degraded from the Head Quarters Inspector's post, on Rs 100+15, to that of Police Head Peon, on Rs 40/- vide Inspector General's letter No 1644/223 dated 25th October 1890) and this application was approved of by the Govt, & the Petitioner was accordingly ordered to revert to the Police Head Cumashi's post, vide Govt Order No 11557/1523 dated 13th January to the Inspector General of Police).

3. That the Petitioner has numerous representations complaining of the cheer injustice done to him by reducing him again, as a sort of 2nd punishment from 100 to Rs 40, or by results in a peremptory order that he should either accept the post of Police Head Cumashi offered to him by the Inspector General, or forfeit it; (vide Govt Prov. camp No 171 dated 18th July 1891).

4 That the Petitioner had, thereby, the height of misfortune to lose the fruits of the Govt order, restoring him, in distinct terms, to his former pay of Rs 100, and to take up the post of Head Cumashi on Rs 40, and that too at the unhealthy district of Shimoga, where he had to drudge for 6 long years; suffering extreme poverty until, in September 1897, he was transferred to Chickaballapur, as Police Inspector, and lastly to the Bangalore District, as Police School Inspector, — all on the

the same annual pay of Rs 40.

5 That the Petitioner was, however, once recommended by the Deputy Commissioner of Kolar Distt, to Government for promotion, when he was Police Inspector at Chikballapur, as he was duly qualified by passing the Judicial and Revenue Tests, in the English language (Vide Dy Com's No 3758/120 dated 11th May/98)

6 That the Petitioner may be permitted to add that the Administration Report of the Bangalore Dist for 1898-99 shows how Petitioner's hard work, as school Inspector, was appreciated by his official superiors, and the Deputy Commissioner in token of his appreciation, forwarded Petitioner's application, to the Inspector General of Police, recommending his promotion in the highest terms. (Vide Dy com's No 518 dated 17th February 1900).

7. That, in the meantime, the Petitioner was obliged to take a long leave, without pay, to attend upon his aged parents, who were residing at Serupatty, and where both of them died, last year, within 6 months from each other.

8 That the Petitioner having had the misfortune to suffer degradation to Rs 40, continuously, for a reward of 10 years past, without any promotion in his own Deptt, as he addressed to the Govt of the Govt. by a petition, addressed from Serupatty, on 12/12/1900, praying to give due effect to the Govt order of 29-Dec 1899 by restoring him to his former pay of Rs 100. This petition is still pending with the Inspector General of Police, to whom it was forwarded by Govt for disposal.

(Vide No 11678/3098 dated 5th March 1900).

2. That as the Petitioner's ill fate has left him still without any prospect of rising in his own line, he prays to humbly beg to approach your august Excellency with a plaintive prayer that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to provide him with a suitable position in Revenue, Registration, or any Deptt wherein he may serve the re-mainder of his days, with a grateful heart, forgetting his past reverses, and praying the almighty God for your noble Excellency's long life & prosperity

And for which acts of devine mercy
the Petitioner will, as in duty bound, ever.

15th November 1901. Veerappa Venkatesha.
